Maryland Heritage Areas Authority Grants Fund Local Heritage Tourism Projects
Over $630,000 in funding to go to Carroll, Frederick, and Washington Counties

Frederick, MD - The Maryland Heritage Areas Authority has announced the results of its latest project grant round, with awards totaling more than $5 million across the state's thirteen certified Heritage Areas. Applicants located within the Heart of the Civil War Heritage Area, encompassing parts of Carroll, Frederick, and Washington Counties were awarded a total of $636,899.37 to support heritage tourism projects that support local economies, drive tourism, and share the unique history of our region.

"We are very pleased to be announcing these grants for our Heritage Area communities," said Heart of the Civil War Heritage Area Board President Kristen McMasters. "So much work is represented in all the high-quality applications from organizations located within the Heritage Area. There's a high level of competition for this grant funding from the State, and it is gratifying to see so many strong organizations working towards preserving, interpreting and promoting our significant historical sites."
